General

21. The Promoter is not liable for any loss, damage or injury suffered (even if caused by negligence) as a result of accepting and/or using a promotion benefit, except for any liability which cannot be excluded by law. All entrants indemnify the Promoter and its related bodies corporate against all liability, cost, loss or expense arising out of accepting the promotion benefit or participation in the Promotion, including but not limited to loss of income and personal injury.

22. The winner should look to the manufacturer of the promotion benefit for all warranties. However, these terms and conditions do not exclude or limit the application of any statutory provision (including a provision of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth)) where to do so would contravene that statute or cause any part of these terms and conditions to be void.

23. Where this Promotion is communicated and/or conducted via a social media platform (including, but not limited to, Facebook, LinkedIn and/or Twitter), entrants acknowledge that use of social media platforms are subject to their terms and conditions of use. The entrant is responsible and liable for the content of their entries and any other information they transmit. The Promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed, administered, or associated with any social media platform. Any questions or complaints about the Promotion must be directed to the Promoter, not to any social media platform used in conjunction with the Promotion. Entrants acknowledge that they are providing their information to the Promoter and not to any social media platform.

24. Macular Disease Foundation Australia reserves the right to change the Promotion conditions at any time
